

North Sea Gas

October 11, 2011

Going for over thirty years and stronger than ever! One of Scotland's most popular bands, North Sea Gas entertains with guitars, mandolin, fiddle, bouzouki, bodhran, whistles, banjo, and great vocals featuring tremendous three part harmonies.

Over the years North Sea Gas has recorded 17 albums and are constantly adding new material to their show. Their latest album, "Tak a Dram Before Ye Go" was released in July 2011. A previous album, "Rosslyn", has received wonderful reviews from folk magazines, newspapers, etc., including Dirty Linen (USA), The Scots Magazine, and The Living Tradition.

"NO AIRS AND GRACES JUST FANTASTIC MUSIC"
EDINBURGHGUIDE.COM
(EDIN/FESTIVAL 2007)

Their show, as their albums, consists of traditional, contemporary and self-penned material, all put together with a style of their own. With Gold and Silver disc awards from the Scottish Music Industry Association they consistently sell out shows at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe.

Put simply, North Sea Gas is a highly entertaining Scottish folk band. Multi-instrumental, tremendous harmonies and great craic, they have an ever-growing fan base which ranges through all age groups thus giving the "Gas" show a universal appeal.

PRESENTED BY

CULTURAL
COUNCIL
OF RICHLAND & LEXINGTON COUNTIES

North Sea Gas are Dave Gilfillan (Right), Ronnie McDonald (Left) and Grant Simpson (Center).

"THIS HUGELY ENTERTAINING BAND"
EDINBURGH EVENING NEWS

October 11, 2011, 7 pm
Harbison Theatre at Midlands Technical College

Visit smartarts.info to purchase tickets
Tickets are $15 for adults, $8 for 18 and under